

DAVEHOUSE PRODUCTIONS

A Tale of My Mind

Synopsis

A Tale of My Mind is a product of time & thought...pain...fate...love...hope...hate and takes place in the far reaches of a tortured soul. This play shows the darker side of love through short scenes, monologues, poetry and movement. It takes you through the story of Wilson and Macy Williams who's marriage is about to be challenged do to a decision that has to be made. We meet Sandra Mitchell who's mourning the loss of her husband. Rolo and Base stand-off in a battle of wills that hinges on one's self worth. Connie and Greta come to a fork in the road when one wants to continue forward with their intimate relationship and the other wants it to end. And Deborah Massicks, after the loss of her daughter, comes face to face with her daughter's killer. All these stories are interwoven using poetry and movement to create an overall since of mystery and intrigue. The emotion of love is one that once entered into can lead one to a great many outcomes. What has love done to you lately?